EXAMINATION INSTRUCTIONS: Section 1. For each job (maximum of three) which you feel has best prepared you for the job of License & Applications Supervisor include a 1-2 page (typed or printed) description detailing your duties and responsibilities. (Applicants serving provisionally or temporarily in the title of License & Applications Supervisor cannot include this as one of the three jobs.) Each job description should begin on a separate page and begin with your job title, company name and location, dates of employment, and number of hours worked per week. This should be followed by a description of your duties and responsibilities organized and formatted around the numbered items that follow. (1) Experience in the licensure, certification and/or permitting functions of a regulatory agency. Indicate the type and purpose of the license, certifications or permits that you have processed. Be specific as to the type of regulated agency, industry or business with which you have worked. Include any experience authorizing issuance of licenses, permits and/or certifications. Be specific in describing what you actually did, the complexity of the certificate and permit applications and your level of responsibility in this area. (2) Experience conducting complex research, collecting data and analyzing information relating to application review process. Indicate the purpose and use of the data you collected/analyzed and for whom it was collected. Be specific in describing what you actually did and your level of responsibility in this area. (3) Experience explaining and/or interpreting regulatory laws and regulations to applicants, licensees or consumers. Indicate the nature of these laws, regulations and policies and on whom they had impact. Be specific as to whom you provided these explanations and interpretations and the reasons for doing so. (4) Oral and written communications experience. Detail your experience responding to mail, telephone and personal inquiries from consumers, governmental agencies, etc. requesting information concerning entities regulated by the department. Also detail your experience acting as a hearings officer preparing material for, or participating in public hearings concerning issuance, revocation or amendment of certificates, licenses or permits. Describe your experience providing technical assistance to others and the nature and purpose of this assistance. Section 2. On a separate page, include a list of degrees, certifications, licenses and courses that you have completed which have prepared you for the job. Important Notes: (1) Make certain both your application form and your examination materials are complete and separate documents not referencing the other, as your application form and supplemental examination materials may be separated during the scoring process. (2) Examination materials should be clearly marked as such and each page should contain the examination title, exam number and your social security number (do not include your name). (3) Do not include materials other than those requested above. (4) Your examination will only be scored if you meet the minimum experience and training requirements outlined above and your CT-HR-12 and supplemental examination materials are date stamped by DAS/Human Resources or postmarked by JULY 6, 2016. (5) Mail applications/examination materials to DAS/Human Resources, Room 404, State Office Building, 165 Capitol Avenue, Hartford, CT 06106-1658 (Secure Fax #860-622-2875). If faxing materials, keep a copy of your completed application form, exam materials and the fax transmittal receipt for your records. Make certain that your application form and exam materials are complete and transmitted correctly and without error. Incomplete faxes or faxes received blank because pages were faxed upside down will not be accepted. (6) Due to the large number of applications received, we cannot confirm receipt of applications. (7) Examination scores will be mailed by AUGUST 31, 2016. (8) A separate application/examination package must be submitted for each exam you are applying for.
